- why it is important for him/her to further his/her education and knowledge in the field of human rights;
- his/her career goals in the field of human rights and rule of law (in Central and Eastern Europe and internationally).

Applications completed online are valid only if all the required documents are signed and submitted in full in .pdf format by the application deadline and if they comply with the formal and substantive requirements of this call for applications.

VII. Awarding the scholarship

The CEA Scholarship Committee will decide on the applications received no later than 15 (fifteen) days after the submission deadline.

Applications will be evaluated in one round, based on the assessment of the three-member Scholarship Committee.

Minimum number of points required to be awarded a scholarship: 40 points.

Evaluation criteria:

- practical experience in the field of human rights and the rule of law (max 15 points).
- presentations and publications on human rights and the rule of law (max 10 points).
- travel expenses from the country of origin (max 25 points).
- individual assessment of the motivation letter (max 15 points).
- previous semester results (max 10 points).

The amount of the scholarship awarded to the applicant will be determined by the Scholarship Committee on the basis of the scores obtained, taking into account the type of scholarship applied for (training and/or personal attendance costs).

The CEA Scholarship Committee will inform the applicant of the outcome of the evaluation by e-mail within 10 (ten) working days of the decision.

There is no right of appeal against the decision on the outcome of the evaluation of applications.
